28 Hubbard v. Claim Jumper, et al
Plaintiff's Complaint

1 I. SUMMARY

2 1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiffs Lynn J. and Barbara J.
3 Hubbard (“the Hubbards”) for discrimination at the building, structure,
4 facility, complex, property, land, development, and/or surrounding business 5 complex known as:

6 Claim Jumper Restaurant
7 5958 Avenida Encinas
8 Carlsbad, CA 92008
9 (“the Restaurant”)

10 2. The Hubbards seek exemplary damages, injunctive and 11 declaratory relief, attorney fees and costs, against Claim Jumper Enterprises,
12 Inc. dba Claim Jumper Restaurant; Palomar & Co (collectively “Claim 13 Jumper Restaurant”) pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 14 1990,(42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.), and related California statutes.

15 II. JURISDICTION

16 3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331
17 and 1343 for ADA claims.

18 4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
19 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is 20 predicated on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

21 5. The Hubbards claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 22 2202.

23 III. VENUE

24 6. All actions complained of herein take place within the 25 jurisdiction of the United States District Court, Southern District of 26 California, and venue is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

1 IV. PARTIES

2 7. Claim Jumper Restaurant owns, operates, or leases the 3 Restaurant, and consists of a person (or persons), firm, or corporation.

4 8. The Hubbards have multiple conditions that affect one or more
5 major life functions. Plaintiffs require the use of motorized wheelchairs and 6 a mobility-equipped vehicle, when traveling about in public. Consequently,
7 the Hubbards are “physically disabled,” as defined by all applicable
8 California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose rights
9 are protected by these laws.

10 V. FACTS

11 9. The Restaurant is an establishment serving food and drink, 12 open to the public, which is intended for nonresidential use and whose 13 operation affects commerce.

14 10. The Hubbards visited the Restaurant and encountered barriers
15 (both physical and intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—16 their ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and 17 accommodations offered at the facility. To the extent known by the 18 Hubbards, attached as Exhibit A to this complaint is a true and accurate list
19 (with photos) of barriers that denied their access at the Restaurant.

20 11. Notwithstanding that visit, the Hubbards were also deterred
21 from visiting the Restaurant on (as of the filing of this complaint), because 22 they knew that the Restaurant’s goods, services, facilities, privileges, 23 advantages, and accommodations at the Restaurant were unavailable to 24 physically disabled patrons (such as themselves). They still refuse to visit 25 the Restaurant because of the future threats of injury created by these 26 barriers.

1 12. The Hubbards also encountered barriers at the Restaurant,
2 which violate state and federal law, but were unrelated to their disability;
3 these unrelated barriers were included within Exhibit A, as a courtesy to the 4 restaurant, so the defendants can avoid inadvertent acts of discrimination
5 against the disabled. Nothing within this complaint, however, should be 6 construed as an allegation that the Hubbards are seeking to remove barriers
7 unrelated to their disability.

8 13. Claim Jumper Restaurant knew that these elements and areas of 9 the Restaurant were inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere
10 with (or deny) access to the physically disabled. Moreover, defendants have 11 the financial resources to remove these barriers from the Restaurant 12 (without much difficulty or expense), and make the facility accessible to the 13 physically disabled. To date, however, they refuse to either remove those 14 barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to excuse their non-15 compliance.

16 VI. FIRST CLAIM

17 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

18 Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use

19 14. The Hubbards incorporate the allegations contained in 20 paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

21 15. Title III of the ADA holds as a 'general rule' that no individual 22 shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal 23 enjoyment (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and 24 accommodations offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a 25 place of public accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

26 16. Claim Jumper Restaurant discriminated against the Hubbards
27 by denying "full and equal enjoyment" and use of the goods, services, 28

1 facilities, privileges or accommodations of The Restaurant during each visit
2 and each incident of deterrence.

3 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

4 17. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural 5 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such 6 removal is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term 7 “readily achievable” is defined as “easily accomplishable and able to be 8 carried out without much difficulty or expense.” Id. § 12181(9).

9 18. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not 10 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or 11 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically 12 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

13 19. Here, the Hubbards allege that Claim Jumper Restaurant can 14 easily remove the architectural barriers at the Restaurant without much
15 difficulty or expense, and that Claim Jumper Restaurant violated the ADA
16 by failing to remove those barriers, when it was readily achievable to do so.

17 20. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Claim
18 Jumper Restaurant to remove the Restaurant’s barriers, then Claim Jumper
19 Restaurant violated the ADA by failing to make the required services
20 available through alternative methods, which are readily achievable.

21 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

22 21. On information and belief, the Restaurant was designed or 23 constructed (or both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering
24 access requirements under Title III of the ADA.

25 22. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities
26 for first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren’t readily accessible to,

1 and usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally
2 practicable to do so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

3 23. Here, Claim Jumper Restaurant violated the ADA by designing
4 or constructing (or both) the Restaurant in a manner that was not readily
5 accessible to the physically disabled public—including the Hubbards—
6 when it was structurally practical to do so.¹

7 Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

8 24. On information and belief, the Restaurant was modified after 9 January 26, 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the 10 ADA.

11 25. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that 12 affects (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to 13 individuals with disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. §
14 12183(a)(2). Altering an area that contains a facility's primary function also 15 requires adding making the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and 16 drinking fountains serving that area accessible to the maximum extent
17 feasible. Id.

18 26. Here, Claim Jumper Restaurant altered the Restaurant in a 19 manner that violated the ADA and was not readily accessible to the 20 physically disabled public—including the Hubbards—to the maximum 21 extent feasible.

22 Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

23 27. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies,
24 practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, 25 facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 26

27
28 ¹ Nothing within complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiffs is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

1 entity can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally
2 alter their nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

3 28. Here, Claim Jumper Restaurant violated the ADA by failing to 4 make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the 5 Restaurant, when these modifications were necessary to afford (and would 6 not fundamentally alter the nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or 7 accommodations.

8 29. The Hubbards seek all relief available under the ADA (i.e., 9 injunctive relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these 10 aforementioned violations. 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

11 30. The Hubbards also seek a finding from this Court (i.e., 12 declaratory relief) that Claim Jumper Restaurant violated the ADA in order
13 to pursue damages under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled
14 Persons Act.

15 VII. SECOND CLAIM

16 Disabled Persons Act

17 31. The Hubbards incorporate the allegations contained in 18 paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

19 32. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with 20 disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use 21 of the streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and 22 other public places.

23 33. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that:
24 Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to 25 accommodations, facilities, telephone facilities, places of public
26 accommodation, and other places to which the general public is invited.

1 34. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an
2 individual's rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

3 35. Here, Claim Jumper Restaurant discriminated against the 4 physically disabled public—including the Hubbards—by denying them full
5 and equal access to the Restaurant. Claim Jumper Restaurant also violated
6 the Hubbards rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed upon or 7 violated (or both) the Hubbards rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

8 36. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, the Hubbards
9 seek actual damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum 10 damages of one thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other 11 remedy available under California Civil Code § 54.3.

12 37. They also seeks to enjoin Claim Jumper Restaurant from 13 violating the Disabled Persons Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code 14 § 55, and to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and incurred under 15 California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

16 VIII. THIRD CLAIM

17 Unruh Civil Rights Act

18 38. The Hubbards incorporate the allegations contained in
19 paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

20 39. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons
21 within the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal 22 accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all 23 business establishments of every kind whatsoever.

24 40. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No
25 business establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against 26 any person in this state because of the disability of the person.
27
28

1 41. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by 2 reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

3 42. Claim Jumper Restaurant aforementioned acts and omissions
4 denied the physically disabled public—including the Hubbards—full and 5 equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a 6 business establishment (because of their physical disability).

7 43. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the 8 ADA) denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against the 9 Hubbards by violating the Unruh Act.

10 44. The Hubbards were damaged by Claim Jumper Restaurant
11 wrongful conduct, and seek statutory minimum damages of four thousand 12 dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

13 45. The Hubbards also seek to enjoin Claim Jumper Restaurant
14 from violating the Unruh Act (and ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys'
15 fees and costs incurred under California Civil Code § 52(a).

16 IX. FOURTH CLAIM

17 Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

18 46. The Hubbards incorporate the allegations contained in
19 paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

20 47. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that:
21 California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds)
22 shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

23 48. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every 24 existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 25 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with 26 this chapter.

1 49. The Hubbards allege the Restaurant is a public accommodation
2 constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the 3 Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the 4 Restaurant was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

5 50. Claim Jumper Restaurant non-compliance with these 6 requirements at the Restaurant aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) the 7 Hubbards and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, they 8 seek injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code 9 § 19953.

10 X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 WHEREFORE, the Hubbards pray judgment against Claim Jumper
12 Restaurant for:

- 13 1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems 14 proper.
- 15 2. Declaratory relief that Claim Jumper Restaurant violated the ADA for 16 the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.
- 17 3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of 18 the California Civil Code (but not both) according to the proof.
- 19 4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.²
- 20 5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
- 21 6. Punitive damages pursuant to Civil Code § 3294.
